Here is a dating profile for Lord Murchison, one of the main characters from "The Sphinx Without a Secret":

Name:

Lord Gerald 25

About me: I'm a handsome and high-spirited English nobleman who loves the outdoors and appreciate honest conversation. I enjoy sports, especially fox hunting and polo. I have an honorable spirit and believe strongly in speaking the truth, though sometimes too bluntly for my own good.

Appearance: I'm 6' tall with an athletic build, sandy blond hair, and bright blue eyes. I typically dress well in fine suits and riding clothes. The ladies say I have a charming smile.

Interests: I love the countryside, riding horses, playing polo, and going hunting. I also enjoy debating politics and current events with friends over brandy and cigars. I'm an avid reader and supporter of the arts.

Looking for: A woman of mystery who I feel I can trust completely and share my innermost thoughts with. She should appreciate honesty and not keep too many secrets, even if that truth troubles her at times. A certain intrigue is exciting, but too much secrecy is troubling. I seek a partner in life who shares my thirst for adventure and passion for the outdoors. Must love dogs!
